We have information on all the creatives associated with this website including: names; addresses; email; telephone numbers & website addresses

We also gather and store email addresses from people who wish to be on our mailing list and those who want to take part in events and projects. Being part of the mailing list can be withdrawn at any time.

The information has been gathered through application, and is then edited and then shared on the website.

We have a contract with the creatives featured on this website, to allow us to gather, store & share their information, and this consent can be withdrawn at any time.

This information is not shared with anyone else, unless permission is sought and agreed with each creative to share.

The information is stored on a computer and is accessible only by the co-ordinator and owner of Inc – Creative / Creadigol.

The information will only be stored whilst the creative is part of the online resource: Inc – Creative / Creadigol
